Sadly Killarney's will be closing by the end of the year, but there's still a few weeks to grab your last beer at this monument of Brooklyn pubs. I promise by the end of the night the bartenders will know your name and you're guaranteed to know at least one person out back smoking a cigarette.

Yep, it's definitely a hole in the wall hidden gem. Rock memorabilia lines the walls and you can always find the best music playing in this grimey little bar.

No matter what night, even in the middle of the week, Rachel's is packed out with Park Slope dwellers. They beat everything out of the water with the cheapest (but delicious) happy hour margaritas for $3. The walls are coated in graffiti and bumperstickers and there's not a moment when you won't hear a ring of laughter from at least 3 tables.
